SULLIVAN.

The annual Sunday school picnic at M. B. Farley's grove was quite well attended. The dust was so choking many who intended going stayed at home.

The heavy rains have fallen all around us, so we hope it will soon be our turn. North and east of us the roads are very muddy.

Orrin Dirlam came from the north with a long train of elegant new buggies, surreys and road wagons. If you are in need of any kind of a buggy, you should see his new stock before buying elsewhere.

E. B. Whitcomb from Wooster University is in Sullivan spending a brief vacation.

Mrs. E. Furlong and daughter, Nellie have returned home from a very pleasant visit in Dayton. Miss Nellie has a new bicycle.

Mr. Fred Green, wife and father-in-law from Cossack, N. Y. arrived in Sullivan to make their home with good "Squire Green" and wife.

Quite a number of our citizens attended the Wellington Fair last week.

Dame Rumor tells us we are to have a new undertaker in Sullivan and she also says there will be a new stock of shoes put in here. That's right, that is just what Sullivan needs, is some competition to make things hum.

We want another meat market to take the place of Giar's market. We want a few manufacturing plants to drop down in our midst and a hand in the jubilee. We want, we want, well, we don't want the earth anyhow.

The yearly meeting was well attended at Medina by our church members.
M. M. Mann and Mrs. Kate Rickett, Mrs. Bertha Grissinger, Mrs. Alice Palmer, Mrs. E. A. Gorham, Mrs. Olive Hubler, Rev. J. A. Findley and daughter, Maud, were some who attended from Friday until Monday.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure thoroughly di-gests food without aid from the stomach, and at the same time heals and restores the diseased digestive organs.
It is the only remedy that does both of these things and can be relied upon to permanently cure dyspepsia. J. W.
Houghton.

PITTSFIELD.

The third annual reunion and picnic of the teachers and scholars of sub-district No. 5 was held last Wednesday in the Sheldon grove with a large attendance. A very enjoyable time was reported. Those from elsewhere were:
Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hollingsworth, Joe Biggs and family, and James Worcester, of Oberlin; Milo Pease and family,

Kidney Diseases
CURED THAT HAD BEEN
pronounced incurable Mr. G. A. Stillson, a merchant of Tampico, Ill., writes FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE is meeting with wonderful success. It has cured some cases here that physicians pronounced incurable.
I, myself am able to testify to its merits. My face to day is a living picture of health, and your Kidney Cure has made it such. I had suffered twenty-seven years with the disease, and to day I feel ten years younger than I did one year ago. I can obtain some wonderful certificates of its medical qualities.

on his annual trip to all the principal fairs in the east and south with his show sheep and hogs. He has an extra fine lot of sheep this year.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Campbell attended the annual reunion and picnic of the Elyria Republican correspondents at Randall's grove.

This is the time of the year for picnics and reunions. Why not the Enterprise staff and corps of correspondents follow suit? It is all the style.
Who says, "Yes?"
